

School Supply List for Sixth Grade

Put your name on everything.

A helpful organizational tool is to have one different color for each subject's supplies.

- NIV Bible with concordance (if the Bible doesn't have a concordance in it (recommended), get a separate one)
- small Merriam Webster dictionary (to keep in your desk)
- a box of tissues
- several blue or black pens; red pens
- several #2 pencils; large eraser
- scissors, colored pencils
- basic calculator (cannot be a graphing one), compass, protractor, 12 inch ruler with metric also
- 1 pencil case that holds the pens, pencils, scissors, eraser, math supplies (except the ruler)
- loose leaf paper; graph paper
- 2 two-pocket folders with fasteners filled with 20 sheets of notebook paper: one for music and one for the country report (used later in the year)
- 1 notebook for math
- 2 two-subject notebooks (or more, if you can't find that): one for science/social studies and one for Bible (If it has a folder in it, that's ideal; this is usually standard for 2-or-more-subject notebooks.)
- 1 three-subject notebook for writing
- 2 two-pocket folders: one for "Other," one for "Writing" (If you don't have a folder in the science/social studies and Bible notebooks, get two-pocket folders for those; Label "Science" on one side and "Social Studies" on the other.)
- math binder: put the 3 binder dividers, math notebook, some loose leaf paper, & graph paper in this binder
- 3 binder dividers for the math binder: "Corrections done," "Corrections to do," and "Homework"
- an inexpensive flash drive (1-2 GB should be fine) to transport documents between school and home (this will be used a lot)
- two clear-front three-hole report covers (not binders or folders; not ones with slide-on binding) for two major reports later in the year
- tri-fold display board for the country report (later in the year)
- poster board for your country report map (later in the year)
- art smock (Put your name on it: the best is a long-sleeved, plastic smock-the longer the better; long-sleeved shirts are ok.)
- sketch book for art (Last year's is ok if less than half full) 8-1/2" x 11" or 9" x 12", 50 sheets, spiral bound, 70#weight

-LCS provides a student planner for you to use, so you do not need to purchase one.

During the school year, it is your (the student's) responsibility to notice when you need to replenish the items on this list and to then notify your parents so you will be able to restock things when necessary. You need to be aware of this ahead of time, before you run out of something, so your parents have time make purchases.

Items that are not required, but could be helpful:

- a water bottle that closes to be kept on the student's desk during school
- white out, index cards (for the country report and for flashcards)
- things to organize your locker, $3 for a lock for your gym locker (the school provides the lock; the students may not use their own)
